

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE.

TUESDAY EVENING, JULY 3 1900.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Subscribers who fail to receive the Gazette regularly will please report promptly at this office.

Rise tomorrow at 4:44 a. m. and at 7:30 p. m. High water at 12:19 a. m. and 12:21 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—Partly cloudy and warm; showers Wednesday; fresh to brisk westerly winds.

THE FOURTH OF JULY.—Tomorrow will be the one hundred and twenty-fourth anniversary of the Declaration of Independence, and will be, as heretofore, generally observed in this city. The depot shops, the various manufacturing plants, most of the stores and other places of business will be closed, while the postoffice, telephone exchanges and telegraph offices will observe Sunday hours. The government and city officers will also be closed. There will be no public ceremonies, but the majority of the community will avail themselves of the opportunity of spending a day picnicking or in patronizing the excursion boats and trains. The average amount of powder will be burned by the small boy and by many of maturer years.

WHEN GREEK MEETS ITALIAN.—Trouble has been brewing for some time on north Royal street, near King, where two rival fraternal establishments have lately been located, and bad blood exists between the proprietors of each, one of whom is a Greek and the other an Italian. Appearances indicate that only a spark is necessary to kindle a small sized international war in the midst of our city. This morning the rivals aired their grievances in the police court, the Italian being the complainant, averring that the Greek called customers away from the former's stand and did not give him fair play. The disturbance occurred about nine o'clock this morning and attracted quite a crowd, some of whom became apprehensive and sent for the police. Both proprietors were summoned to appear before the Mayor who after hearing all the evidence, and reprimanding the Greek for his business methods, dismissed the case, promising to look up both of them if any more trouble should occur.

POLICE COURT.—Mayor George L. Simpson presiding.—The following cases were disposed of this morning:

J. Eugene Otinger, charged with conducting business without a license, was dismissed.

James Robinson, charged with vagrancy, was put on a bread and water diet.

A young man, charged with being drunk and disorderly, was fined $10.

Julia Cheeks, colored, charged with fighting, was fined $5.

Amelia Lee, colored, charged with fighting, was dismissed.

Sallie Jackson and Florence Knight, both colored, charged with fighting, were fined $5 each.

Edward Davis, colored, charged with an assault on Martin Davis, also colored, with a knife, was fined $5.

Albert Brown, colored, charged with disorderly conduct and fighting, was fined $5.

Eugene Cross, charged with disorderly conduct and being drunk, was fined $10.

Charles Page, colored, charged with threatening and abusive language toward Taylor Tibbs, also colored, was dismissed.

Night Report.—Last night was clear and cool. Twelve prisoners and three lodgers were at the station house.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Geo. W. Jamieson has gone to Trenton, N. J., to spend a short vacation with his son, Dr. Jamieson, of that city.

Mr. John H. Schofield, of Zanesville, is in the city for a few days visiting his parents on north Columbus street.

Mr. J. C. Milburn has gone to Lowell, Mass., on a visit to friends.

The condition of Mr. Benoni Wheat continues unimproved.

Capt. H. C. Ansley and family will spend the summer with Mr. George Wise, on Seminary Hill.

Mr. F. Beattie, Jr., was taken suddenly ill at the electric railway power house at Four-mile-run this morning and had to be brought to this city where he was attended by Dr. Jones.

CONFEDERATE VETERANS.—The regular monthly meeting of R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, was held in their hall last night, Commander J. C. Milburn presiding. One application for membership was received and referred. Considerable business, but only of a private nature, was transacted.

The monument committee met after the camp adjourned and discussed some matters in regard to the improvement of the ground around the monument.

BASEBALL.—There will be two games of baseball at the fair grounds tomorrow between the Alexandrians and Rockvilles. The battery for the first game will be Edwards and Baltis; for the second Freeman or Brown and Altis. The first game will be at 2 o'clock, the second at 4:30. The admission will be 25 cents for both games.

EXCURSION.—The annual outing of the Union Sunday Schools to River View on Thursday, July 6, promises to be one of the most enjoyable of the season. Boats will leave Reed's wharf at 10:30 a. m., 2:45 and 7:15 p. m., returning at 5, 8 and 10:30 p. m.

APPOINTMENT.—Judge C. E. Nicol, of the Circuit Court, has appointed Mr. G. L. Boothe a special commissioner to draw juries in this city for the Circuit Court. The appointment was made under a law passed during the last session of the legislature.

PLEASURE GARDEN.—For many years

Alexandria has been without an evening place of amusement and enjoyment such as a summer garden or other outdoor resort. The Concordia Hotel proprietors realizing the needs of a pleasure-loving public will supply that want by converting a large acreage of that hotel into a veritable "Family Garden." Here visitors may enjoy the cooling breezes of electric fans while having the recreation of playing the choice recreations of music by telephone; regaling themselves with the choice cigars or the refreshment of iced beverages and reasonable edibles. Initiative opening will take place tonight, followed by an "open door" fronting on the street for each consecutive night during reasonable weather. Tonight there will be a crack picking to which all are cordially invited.

There are no better pills made than De Witt's Little Early Biscuits. Always prompt.

ARRESTED.—Mr. John M. Barley, of this city, was arrested here this evening by Officer Knight on a U. S. warrant sworn out in Washington by Castleberg & Co., jewelers, of that city, who charged him with obtaining a watch from them on false pretenses. Mr. Barley was taken to the station house and held to await the arrival of officers from Washington. He said he would go to that city without requisition papers. It is reported that Mr. Barley has recently purchased several articles of jewelry from Messrs. Castleberg on the installment plan and then realized upon them, but Mr. Barley says he will make satisfactory explanations at the proper time.

FAILED TO QUALIFY.—At the May election John Jones, colored, and J. W. Beasley were elected constables for the Third and Fourth wards respectively. Neither of them, however, has qualified. It is reported, for the reason that they failed to secure bonds, so that the City Sergeant and his deputy will have to act as constables for those two wards in case the services of a constable are needed.

MAYOR OF FALLS CHURCH.—Mr.

Henry Turner was last night elected mayor of Falls Church by the town council of that place to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. G. W. Hawkhurst, who has recently been appointed to a position in the government service in Washington. Mr. Turner is well known in this city.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Tomorrow being the Fourth of July, the Gazette will not be published on that day.

The summer exodus has commenced.

There will be a business meeting of the Young Men's Association tonight.

Mr. Jacob Brill will give another crab feast at his restaurant, at the foot of King street, tonight.

The City Tax Collector was busy today receiving taxes and the City Treasurer paying coupons.

Two traps who were begging on the streets this evening were arrested and locked up at the station house.

Bois Austin, of this city, has been awarded the prize for naming the new beer of the Consumers' Brewing Co., "Old Brim."

Thos. J. Proctor has sold to Ida M. Jones a house and lot on the west side of Patrick street, between Princess and Queen, for $975.

Subscribers or others leaving the city for the summer, or for any time, can have the Gazette mailed to their address without extra cost.

Mr. Chas. S. Barnett has sold his home and five acres of land at Ballston, in the county, to Mrs. Ella Jordan, of Washington, for $5,000.

The schooner Wm. Oliver, loaded with fertilizer materials, arrived yesterday from Baltimore, consigned to the Armour Fertilizer Company.

The gossips were busy yesterday and Sunday circulating a report that a merchant of this city had recently married one of his clerks. The report was without foundation.

It is understood that the electric railway company will agree to pave Prince street, between Fairfax and Royal, with vitrified brick and use any rail the City Council selects for the privilege of making a loop between their tracks on Fairfax and Royal streets.

Stanislaus Edelin, who, while locked up at the police station about two months ago, awaiting a hearing on the charge of being implicated in the burglary of Lyle's shoe shop, on upper Duke street, made his escape, was captured yesterday by Policeman Roberts. This morning he was discharged.

John F. May has brought suit in the District of Columbia Supreme Court against the Life Insurance Company of Virginia, the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company of New York, and the Prudential Life Insurance Company of New Jersey, for $15,500 damages. Mr. May alleges that the three companies entered into a conspiracy to prevent his securing employment with any of them.

Benjamin H. Snell's remains found a last resting place at Mount Olivet Cemetery, near Washington, yesterday. Since his execution at the District Jail last Friday his body had been held at an undertaker's establishment. It was believed that the parents of the dead man would have the body shipped to Georgia for burial, but they sent money to the undertaker with instructions to have it interred in Washington.

A head-on collision between the local train which left Chesapeake Junction, near Washington, for Chesapeake Beach at 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning and the passenger express leaving the beach at noon resulted in the death of Frederick E. Maier, the engineer, and Charles Zier, the fireman, both of whom were shot high in the air and landed heavily on the hard pavement. None of the men were hurt. The train, the horse car and one of the fire horses injured.

THE SEPARATE CAR BILL.

The Ephes separate car bill, which went into effect at midnight Saturday, had its first trial on Sunday, when there was twice as much travel by negroes as on any other day, and the new law went into operation without difficulty as far as heard from on the roads entering Richmond. The railroads had ample notice and prepared cars in advance.

Most of the cars are separated by a partition across a few seats in one end of each car. These compartments, it is understood, will be used for colored people when travel is light, and when it is heavy an extra car will be used. When the extra car is used then these compartments will be utilized as "smokers," and there will be no regular smoking-cars. The accommodation for whites and blacks are identical.

The only objection raised by the colored people so far is their inability to buy second-class tickets, they having been abolished under the new order of things.

The law requiring separate cars is styled, "The act providing for separate railway coaches for white and colored people," but what is known as the "Jim Crow Law." The act was passed and approved on January 30, 1900, and the railroads were given five months to make preparations for the change.

The law consists of nine sections, which provide, in substance, as follows:

Section 1 provides for separate coaches on all steam railroads in Virginia.

Section 2 forbids discrimination in the quality, accommodations and conveniences of the cars for the white and colored.

Section 3 makes the violation of sections 1 and 2 a misdemeanor and fixes the punishment at a fine of not less than $300 nor more than $1,000.

Section 4 gives county and city courts, in whose counties and cities railroads are operated, jurisdiction over the offenses in section 3.

Section 5 gives the conductor of a train power to eject those who refuse to occupy the cars provided for them.

Section 6 makes failure of conductors to comply with section 5 a misdemeanor and fixes a fine of not less than $25 nor more than $50 for each offense.

Section 7 gives a conductor the privilege of putting persons out of the coach or compartment of coach provided for them if the one provided is full and no other is available.

Section 8 states the exception to the law as follows: Employees of railroads, persons employed as nurses, officers in charge of prisoners, passengers in any caboose car attached to a freight train, Pullman cars and through or express trains which do no local business.

Section 9 states time when law goes into effect—July 1, 1900.

MAY NEVER RECOVER.—Miss Nellie

Keister, one of the victims of the assault reported in Botetourt county two weeks ago, who was taken to her home last week, is not improved, but it is feared that she will never be able to give any clear statement concerning the mysterious happening near Cloverdale, when she was returning from Roanoke to Cloverdale with her cousin, Miss Linkenhoker. Miss Keister is much improved, and, according to her sister, is now occasionally rational. Miss Mary Keister says that her sister is rational, but only realizes that she is at home. She says that her sister makes many remarks which prove her rationality, but that at times her mind appears to be perfectly blank. The negro Wallace, who is believed to have committed the crime, if such it was, is still in custody at Roanoke.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Governor Roosevelt reached Oklahoma City at 11:45 o'clock last night. Fully 10,000 persons were in the streets of the town and about the depot to meet him.

Five burglars overpowered, bound and gagged Joseph Trotter and Fyramus Egan, employed at the Cold Spring Brewery, Lawrence, Mass., early this morning and threw him into an empty freight car. They then proceeded to cut the two safes in the brewery offices with dynamite. The charges were exploded and the office wrecked. Only a small sum of money was secured. Trotter and Egan were found later exhausted. They had been badly hurt by the robbers. The thieves escaped.

A GOULD-CASTELLANE ROW.—Gossip

has been revived to the effect that ever since the Castellane's American trip there has been a growing coolness between Count and Countess Boni Castellane and the Goulds. The Countess (nee Anna Gould) is said to have been grievously disappointed at the scant response with which her rich relatives met the Count's appeal for more millions to spend.

McClure's Magazine for July has been received from its publishers in New York. Its contents are: "When It is Evening," The Sea-Builders, A Tragedy of Frontier Port Life, The Outsider, An Aired Tragedy, A Jack and Jill of the Jermans, Bryan, Railway Development in China, A Little Feminine Casanova, An Unwritten Chapter or in American Diplomacy, The Star-Spangled Banner, The Fall of Quebec, and The Life of the Master.

It has been demonstrated by experience that consumption can be prevented by the early use of One Minute Cough Cure. This is the favorite remedy for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, and all throat and lung troubles. Cures quickly.
